By signing, I understand that submitting an application for 中文天地 does not guarantee an assignment to this program and that all applicants must be approved by the UW-Madison China Program. I also understand that the main purpose of the 中文天地 program is to enable students to gain, maintain and improve fluency in the Chinese language by using it as their primary means of communication with 中文天地 residents. I understand that the use of Chinese is obligatory at all 中文天地 activities and events. I agree to participate fully in the cultural and social activities of the 中文天地, including taking meals regularly with the other residents in the dining room. I understand that I am required to enroll in the one credit 中文天地 course in the fall (information on enrolling will be sent during the summer).

Application Instructions:

There are different application instructions based on your student classification:

- 1. Current University Housing Resident: If you are interested in returning to the halls for 2024-25, you will need to complete your Notice of Intent in My UW Housing between October 18 and October 25. If you are allotted a room selection time, complete your language program application by October 25, and are accepted to the program, you will be able to select your room as soon as November 1/2, depending on your room selection timeslot. Students who submit an application after October 25 may still be eligible for a language program, but may not be able to select a space on the first selection days. For the most up to date information about the room selection process, please visit our website here.
- 2. Current UW-Madison Student, But NOT University Housing Resident: You must apply for both a University Housing contract AND for the 中文天地 program. Housing contracts are sent to interested students as long as space remains available. Thus, early housing applications and early language program applications are encouraged.

Please submit completed application at go.wisc.edu/my-housing under the designated area in the Academic Year 2024-25 application.
