By signing, I understand that submitting an application for Baytunaa does not guarantee an assignment to this program and that all applicants must be approved by the Department of African Cultural Studies. I also understand that the main purpose of the Baytunaa program is to enable students to gain, maintain, and improve fluency in the Arabic language by using it as their primary means of communication with Baytunaa residents. I understand that the use of Arabic is obligatory at all Baytunaa activities and events. I agree to participate fully in the cultural and social activities of Baytunaa, including taking meals regularly with the other residents in the dining room. I understand that I am required to enroll in the one credit Baytunaa course in the fall. (Information on enrolling will be sent during the summer.)

Application Instructions:

There are different application instructions based on your student classification:

- 1. Current University Housing Resident: If you are interested in returning to the halls for 2022-23, you will need to complete your Notice of Intent in My UW Housing between October 27 and November 6. If you are allotted a room selection time, complete your language program application by November 6, and are accepted to the program, you will be able to select your room as soon as November 15/16, depending on your room selection timeslot. Students who submit an application after November 6 may still be eligible for a language program, but may not be able to select a space on the first selection days. For the most up to date information about the room selection process, please visit our website here.
- 2. New UW-Madison Student: You must receive a housing contract AND apply for the Baytunaa program. Housing contracts are sent based on the admission dates of students as long as space remains available. If you receive a housing contract, please submit your Baytunaa application no later than May 1, 2023.

Please submit completed application in your My UW Housing portal under the designated area in the Academic Year 2023-24 Application.
