7. Какую русскую еду Вы любите?

8. (For those who do not yet read and write in Russian; skip if you answered 1-7) Please write a paragraph in English explaining why you would like to live in the Russian House, what experiences you have had in the past that might be similar to living in a language house (summer camp, an intensive course, after school activities, etc.) and what you think you could bring to life there – what hobbies and interests, knowledge about Russia or other parts of the Russian-speaking world, personal qualities. Also briefly characterize yourself: quiet/sociable, morning person/night person, etc., in order to help us accommodate you.

Please read carefully, sign, and date:

By signing, I understand that submitting an application for the Russian House does not guarantee an assignment to this program and that all applicants must be approved by the Department of Slavic Languages and Literature. I also understand that the main purpose of the Russian House program is to enable students to gain, maintain and improve fluency in the Russian language by using it as their primary means of communication with Russian House residents. I understand that the use of Russian is obligatory at all Russian House activities and events. I agree to participate fully in the cultural and social activities of the Russian House, including taking meals regularly with the other residents in the dining room. I understand that I am required to enroll in the one-credit Russian House course both semesters (information on enrolling for the fall will be sent during the summer), and that I may request permission for an exemption to this requirement only in the case of a course conflict or a conflict with another official university activity. I also understand that I must be enrolled in a level appropriate Russian-language course unless I receive an exemption by the Russian House Faculty Director.

Application Instructions:

There are different application instructions based on your student classification:

- 1. Current University Housing Resident: Complete your language program application as soon as possible. You could select your room for Academic Year 2021-22 as soon as TBD. For the most up to date information please visit our website here.
- 2. Current UW-Madison Student, But NOT University Housing Resident: You must apply for both a University Housing contract AND for the Russkii Dom program. Housing contracts are sent to interested students as long as space remains available. Thus, early housing applications and early language program applications are encouraged.
- 3. New UW-Madison Student: You must receive a housing contract AND apply for the Russkii Dom program. Housing contracts are sent based on the admission dates of students as long as space remains available. If you receive a housing contract, please submit your Russkii Dom application no later than May 1, 2021.

Please submit completed application in your My UW Housing portal under the designated area in the Academic Year 2021-22 Application.
