By signing, I understand that submitting an application for the Russian House does not guarantee an assignment to this program and that all applicants must be approved by the Department of Slavic Languages and Literature. I also understand that the main purpose of the Russian House program is to enable students to gain, maintain and improve fluency in the Russian language by using it as their primary means of communication with Russian House residents. I understand that the use of Russian is obligatory at all Russian House activities and events. I agree to participate fully in the cultural and social activities of the Russian House, including taking meals regularly with the other residents in the dining room. I understand that I am required to enroll in the one-credit Russian House course both semesters (information on enrolling for the fall will be sent during the summer), and that I may request permission for an exemption to this requirement only in the case of a course conflict or a conflict with another official university activity. I also understand that I must be enrolled in a level appropriate Russian-language course unless I receive an exemption by the Russian House Faculty Director.
