

SPRING 2023 COURSE OPPORTUNITY

WEDNESDAYS (BEGINNING FEB. 1) 5:30-7:00PM CHADBOURNE CLASSROOM

ENG 200: WRITING STUDIO

Taking one or more spring courses with a writing component?

Apply now for the Writing Studio!

This peer-led course will allow you to workshop your papers and receive support on writing for other classes.

EXCLUSIVELY AVAILABLE TO CRC RESIDENTS!
ONLY 15 SPOTS AVAILABLE!

Questions? Email Keli Tucker at kdtucker@wisc.edu

writing fellows

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

INTER-LS 139

Belong, Explore, Become: Discovering your UW Paths

Spring 2023, 1 credit

This 1-credit course is for first-year, undecided students exploring majors in any school or college at UW-Madison.

The course has a small-class setting and uses personal reflections, readings, discussions, and in-class activities to explore self, community, and the liberal arts education. You'll progress through a framework with the goal of developing knowledge, confidence, and tools to navigate the University's opportunities and resources.

Course Schedule & Details

Section 001: Wednesdays 2:30p-3:45p (Van Hise Hall)

Section 002: Thursdays 11:00a-12:15p (Ingraham Hall)

Section 003: Mondays 4:00p-5:15p (Chadbourne Hall)

All sections are in-person & space is limited.

Instructor: Dr. Laura Stephenson (lstephenson2@wisc.edu)

Class Capacity: 20 students per section

Attributes: L&S credit

"Really insightful class that teaches a lot of necessary tools for managing your first year."

- Fall 2022 Student

Belong to our community.

Connect with others explorers.
Learn about yourself and how you got there.

Explore your college path.

Dive into your interests. Consider new possibilities. See what UW-Madison has to offer you.

Become empowered.

Create your own toolkit to draw from as you become who you want to be now and in the future.