

Multicultural Learning Community Fall 2022 Seminar

MLC Seminar (Afro Am 271) section 1
Witte Hall, rooms 114/116
Wednesdays 3:30-6pm

This course investigates multiculturalism, the intersectionality of systems of oppression (race, class, gender, dis/ability, sexuality, etc.) and social justice in individual, societal, institutional and structural spaces. The MLC seminar examines multiculturalism from individual, societal, and institutional perspectives. You will learn about social justice, how identities shape an individual's outlook, as well as how this influences society.
