

MULTICULTURAL LEARNING COMMUNITY SEMINAR

Multiculturalism & Social Justice: African American Studies 271

DETAILS

AFRO AMERICAN STUDIES 271

CLASS NUMBER 67575

CREDITS 3

SCHEDULE SPRING 2025:

WEDNESDAY 3:30-6:00 PM

LOCATION WITTE CLASSROOM 112

INSTRUCTOR DR. CARL GRANT

FULFILLS ETHNIC STUDIES

REQUIREMENT

Course Description

The course investigates multiculturalism, the intersectionality of systems of oppression (race, class, gender, dis/ability, sexuality, etc.) and social justice in individual, societal, institutional, and structural spaces. The MLC seminar examines multiculturalism from individual, societal, and institutional perspectives. You'll learn about social justice and how identities shape an individual's outlook, as well as how this influences society.

