The purpose of this course is to investigate multiculturalism, the intersectionality of systems of oppression (race, class, gender, dis/ability, sexuality, etc...) and social justice in individual, societal, institutional and structural spaces. The MLC seminar examines multiculturalism from individual, societal, and institutional perspectives. You’ll learn about social justice, how identities shape an individual’s outlook, as well as how this influences society.

3 CREDITS FULFILLS YOUR ETHNIC STUDIES REQUIREMENT!